Service Foods Begins Offering Organic, All-Natural Honey from Savannah Bee Company

The Georgia-based companies, both nationally recognized for their success, share a common focus on providing pure, healthy products

ATLANTA, October 14—Service Foods, a leading provider of organic and all-natural foods for home delivery, has announced that it is now offering Savannah Bee Company’s full line of pure, world-class honey to its customers.

The collaboration between the two Georgia-based organizations follows on the heels of the recognition both received as finalists for the Ernst & Young Entrepreneur Of The Year Award and their rankings on the prestigious Inc. 500|5000 list of the fastest-growing companies in America.

“We are pleased to establish a relationship with Savannah Bee Company, who shares our focus on healthy, all-natural products and environmentally friendly practices. You can’t get much more natural than honey,” said Dr. Keith Kantor, CEO of Service Foods. “Additionally, this is a wonderful opportunity for our companies to further their success in Georgia and beyond.”

Filtered and then bottled without any processing or additives, honey from Savannah Bee Company is free from animal-based colorants and lubricants, petroleum-based ingredients, and synthetic fragrances and preservatives. The company’s Specialty Honey, Raw Honeycomb and Everyday Honey lines are 100 percent natural, following with Service Foods’ commitment to providing gourmet certified organic, all-natural food.

Service Foods specializes in fully aged, grain-fed Black Angus beef; super-select pork; Grade-A, free-range poultry; sashimi-grade seafood; and Grade-A natural and organic fancy vegetables. Additionally, the company also gives customers access to fitness tips, nutritional pointers, cooking demonstrations, and educational reports detailing the link between eating right and staying healthy.

“We are excited to be working with a fellow Inc. 500|5000 company, especially one who is so in synch with our own mission of bringing natural and organic products to customers,” said Savannah Bee Company founder and president Ted Dennard. “Working together will help us to meet our goal of growing consumers’ recognition of the versatility of honey as an ingredient in cooking and a healthy lifestyle.”

Now in its 24th year, Ernst & Young Entrepreneur Of The Year is the world’s most prestigious business award for entrepreneurs. Past winners include Fortune 500 companies such as Oracle, Dell and Home Depot. The 2010 Inc. 500|5000 list measured revenue growth from 2006 through 2009. To qualify, companies had to be U.S.-based, privately held, for-profit and independent as of December 31, 2009, and had to meet specific, audited revenue milestones. The Inc. 500|5000 list puts Service Foods and Savannah Bee Company among an elite group that over the years has included Microsoft, Under Armour, Jamba Juice and E*Trade.

About Savannah Bee Company

Savannah Bee Company was established in 2002 in Savannah, Ga. and has grown by leaps and bounds while still remaining true to its environmental consciousness. The company’s world-class honey comes from ecologically responsible beekeepers who cherish their bees and each batch is individually tested to maintain the highest possible quality standards. Savannah Bee Company honey is pure and raw, straight from the bee, and the company does not support product testing on animals, nor does it use any animal-based colorants or lubricants, petroleum-based ingredients, or synthetic fragrances or preservatives.
